

SCIENTIST IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Nicole Strittmatter

Technical University of Munich

REGISTER NOW

Multimodal imaging strategies to increase our understanding of drug delivery

Live webinar | Friday 8 April

07:00 PT | 10:00 ET | 15:00 BST | 16:00 CEST

Register Online

For our April Scientist in the Spotlight, we are pleased to welcome Nicole Strittmatter, PhD, from the Technical University of Munich. Nicole, who previously worked as a molecular imaging scientist at AstraZeneca (2015-2021), will be talking about how her team are using different imaging modalities, including mass spectrometry imaging and highly multiplexed immunohistochemistry, to gain insights into the heterogeneity of drug delivery in complex tissues.

